MY PORTFOLIO

PDF

I tell stories that stick.

From UX to campaign rollouts, I blend strategy, clarity, and craft - without losing the creative edge.

01

Image 01
Grid System

Clean lines. Sharp logic.
The framework that grounded a bold visual identity built to flex and fly.

02

Image 02
Hero Logo

A liquid mark, born to glow.
Neon green with attitude - built to pulse, not just sit pretty.

Image 03 Paperwork Design

Tactile meets tactical. A4, poster, and card - all singing in-brand, in-sync, and ready to land.

Image 04 Social Posts

Scrolled to stop. Designed for the thumb, built for the brand. Every pixel pulls its weight.

Image 05 App Logo

Pocket presence. A logo that holds its own on-screen - bold, simple, and always switched on.

06

Image 06

Favicon

It's small. It's square. It does the job. A neat little nod to the brand, tucked up top.

07

Image 07

Tube Poster

IRL meets URL. A bold brand moment made for motion - TikTok energy, underground setting.

01

Image 01
Grid System

Structure with intention.
The starting point for a future-facing identity with tech at its core.

02

Image 02
Hero Logo

Plugged in and planet-ready.
A logo built to orbit the web - bold, simple, and scalable.

03

Image 03
Homepage Mockup

First impressions, fine-tuned. A homepage built to guide, grip, and get straight to the point.

Image 04
Proposal Pages

Design with direction. A full suite of pages that sold the vision and stitched the story together.

IMPROVING THE CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE BY BRIDGING
THE GAP BETWEEN DIGITAL AND PHYSICAL

Simkins has an opportunity to utilise their brick-and-mortar dealerships and showrooms in prime locations to create unique shopping experiences.

An omnichannel approach will play a key role in supporting the seamless customer experience across all channels online and offline.

70% of shoppers want to configure a payment on a dealership website, whilst 85% indicated that online buying technology would help to narrow down their vehicle choice and determine what is affordable.
(Jai Wertz, 2020) (PWC, 2018)

AR and VR, open opportunities for greater customer engagement - from virtual test drives, 360-degree views of an interior, or exterior walkarounds. 56% of car buyers said they could be convinced to buy a car from a 360-degree video without even having to drive the vehicle.
(Think With Google, 2018)

Image 06
Proposal Covers

Bookends with impact. Covers that set the tone, seal the deal, and hold everything in between.

07

Image 07
Opening Page

Straight to it. A clean opener that frames the vision and invites the reader into the detail.

08

Image 08
Studio Door Logo

Knock, knock. The brand lives here now - clear, crisp, and ready to welcome ideas in.

01

Image 01
UX Sketch

Where structure starts.
Early scrawlings that mapped out flow, function, and user-first thinking.

02

Image 02
UX Site Map

From sketch to screen. A clear site flow designed to guide, serve, and never waste a click.

03

Image 03
Responsive Mockup

Built to flex. A design that shifts seamlessly from pocket to palm to desk - no detail lost.

04

Image 04
Homepage Hero

A clear, functional homepage. Designed to welcome, direct, and get straight to the job.

ROAR of an engine.

Wind rushes.

EXT. VEHICLE - NIGHT.

Streetlights flicker across a sleek black bonnet. Faster.
Faster.

INT. VEHICLE - CONTINUOUS.

Clutch slammed. Gear shifts. Knuckles tighten around wheel.

EXT. VEHICLE - CONTD.

Back wheels carve through rainwater. The car surges forward, disappearing into a tunnel.

INT. VEHICLE - CONTD.

A CD slides in - smooth, deliberate.

TRACK 1 HITS. Bass vibrates through the frame.

EXT. BRIDGE TOP - CONTD.

The black car emerges from below, slicing towards the glowing city ahead.

EXT. CITY STREETS - CONTD.

Weaving through buildings. A hard turn. No hesitation.

EXT. STREET / BAR - CONTD.

A door swings open. A MAN and WOMAN step out, laughing. Our DRIVER watches.

INT. CAR - CONTD.

A camera lifted. The lens aligns. Cross-hairs lock in. Zoom.

CLICK.

Image 01

Screenplay Opening

control, ambition, and the cost of chasing clicks - told from the inside out.

Image 02
Storyboard One

Momentum from frame
one. Headlights, speed, and tension - a story already in motion.

Image 03
Storyboard Two

Clutch slammed.
Sudden. Heavy. The calm before the chaos doesn't last long.

THANK YOU

Storyboard Three

Gear shifts. A move forward. Fast, fluid, and final - or maybe just the start.
